
Brief Introduction

Shri NRIPENDRA KUMAR is M. Tech. (Civil Engg.) 1990 from Indian Institute Of Technology, N-Delhi

He retired from the Government job on 30 th June 2019 after completing 34 years service in Central Government in Ministry of Water Resources. He was Member (Civil) in Narmada Control Authority, Indore under Ministry of Water Resources, Government of India and was responsible for water distribution of Narmada basin among four party states MP, Rajasthan, Gujarat and Maharastra.

He has visited almost all the major river valley projects like Tehri Dam, Nathpa Jhakri Project, Sardar Sarovar Project and many others throughout the length and breadth of the country. During the course of the service life he also visited the projects in the neighbouring countries like Nepal, Bhutan and Myanmar.

He was member of various BIS Technical Committees on Geological

Investigation and Subsurface Exploration and also member of various technical societies like Indian Geotechnical Society, Indian Society for Rock Mechanics and Tunnelling Technology(ISRMTT), Indian Society of Construction material and Structures.

He has delivered number of lectures in various training programs and courses and has published more than 50 technical papers and articles in various national and international conferences and was also involved in the organisation of many training programme, workshop and conferences.

He was also awarded UNDP fellowship training for six months at University of Wales, Swansea, U.K.

He was also involved in CSMRS-NGI, Norway Institutional cooperation Programs and was involved in the works of Indian National Committee on Geotechnical Engineering of Ministry of Water Resources, Government .

Recently he has been awarded Prominent Alumni Award by his college association.
